KPD Celebrates Promotion of Detective Aaron Lester to Rank of Lieutenant

LĪHU'E – On Thursday, February 9, the Kaua'i Police Department held a promotion ceremony at their Headquarters building to honor Detective Aaron Lester who was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant.

Lieutenant Lester, a 10-year veteran of the department, spent the last four years as a detective conducting investigations including sexual assaults and other violent crimes. He will now be taking over as District Commander assigned to Waimea where he will oversee patrol operations for the entire district.

“We congratulate Lieutenant Lester on his well-deserved promotion and look forward to seeing him continue to make a positive impact for this community in his new role and level of responsibility,” said Chief Todd G. Raybuck.
